

State STREET EATS

Rather than face the often arduous and occasionally adventurous task of commuting via Eagle Road, drivers will often take the longer route down State Street to get to Eagle. State Street can't boast the proliferation of strip malls, big-box stores, banks, housing or health care along Eagle Road (nor the mighty Village at Meridian)—it is, however, home to a surprising variety of eateries ranging from fine dining restaurants to fast-food joints. So, if you're between 13th and Glenwood streets and get hit with a hunger pang, there's a place on State to satiate.
